In the recruitment post shared via Proactive Healthcare Recruiters, the clinic describes that it is looking for dedicated, compassionate and energetic Registered Nurses (RN) and Licensed Practical Nurses (LPN) for a unique 50-bed Skilled Nursing Facility (SNF) in South Weymouth, Massachusetts. The job is described as being a vital part of a dynamic team with the opportunity to help patients.

As Proactive Healthcare Recruiters explains, the clinic has always prided itself on delivering individualized nursing care and customized assistance with daily activities. Each and every resident at the facility is given all the support they need to remain as independent as possible, which allows them to lead a meaningful life with dignity. With the clinic?s higher-than-normal staff ratio, they are able to ensure that each patient gets to spend quality time with their nurses, and in turn, that all their needs are met in a home-like environment. Interested nurses can learn more and apply for the job at the following link: https://careers.proactivehealthcarerecruiters.com/.

There are multiple shifts available, with both full-time and part-time options. The clinic explains that they consider over 24 hours as full-time, and this makes the nurse eligible for benefits. They also utilize the Baylor program, meaning that a nurse that works 36 over the weekend would be considered as if they worked 40 hours.

Nurses who apply can expect a variety of benefits, including a flexible job with a competitive salary based on their merits. Payment will be done weekly with a direct deposit. They will also have affordable health benefits (with medical, dental, and vision covered) and retirement options ? 403(B) with company match. Weekly Pay with Direct Deposit. The clinic also highlights that they offer Paid Time Off ? 10 paid holidays, 10 vacation days, 7 sick days and more.

Nurses considering applying should meet the following requirements: they must be fully vaccinated for COVID-19 with a booster. They must have a Nursing degree from an accredited school or graduate from LPN/LVN program and experience in Medical/Surgical nursing (long-term care preferred). They should also have a current, unencumbered, active nursing license in the state of Massachusetts. Additionally, they should be able to read, write and speak English and must be able to push, pull, move and or lift a minimum of 50 pounds.

The services rendered by Proactive Healthcare Recruiting have earned the company the admiration of both healthcare professionals and recruiters. Thomas, a candidate who worked with Proactive says, ?Proactive contacted me as a recruiter in the healthcare industry, and from the first contact with me through the interview process and eventual hire date, was a consummate professional. They know their client's needs well, and did a terrific job of coaching, supporting and guiding me through the interview process while keeping the important channels of communication flowing with the employer and their client. I would wholeheartedly recommend Proactive as a recruiter from either a client/employer or potential employee perspective.?

Michael from Interim Healthcare says, ?It was a pleasure to work with this team. They took the time to understand the specific needs of our organization to better identify the right candidates up front, thereby saving us time, money and frustration. They were always prompt with follow up materials and were timely when it came to our regularly scheduled calls. They had a real interest in the success of the candidates and our business. They were easy to work with.?
