Jubilee Properties has pledged that homeowners that sell to the company will get paid within a week of closing. If all goes well, the sale closes within a few days, said a representative for the company.

Vancouver, Washington - Jubilee Properties, one of the leading cash for home buying services, has said, ?we buy houses Vancouver, WA, and will pay cash within a week of closing.? The company has said homeowners are usually paid within 48 hours of closing. However, unforeseeable circumstances like bank holidays or others could delay payment. But the company has promised that homeowners are guaranteed to be paid when the sale closes.

One of the most stressful things about selling a home, apart from finding a buyer, is getting paid. Most average buyers will buy a house on a mortgage, which needs to be cleared by the bank. A bank can take anywhere from three to four weeks to clear a mortgage, after which the seller is paid. Yes, it is time-consuming, but that?s how things often work. Fortunately, leading cash home-buying companies like Jubilee Properties to have the cash reserves to pay almost instantly.

?We buy houses Vancouver, WA, and may also be in nearby areas. In fact, we have been buying homes for a very long time, and with dozens of reviews, homeowners are assured of a payday once the sale goes through. However, for those still skeptical, we guarantee payment within a week of closing. No other property business can offer that level of certainty,? said a representative for Jubilee Properties.

She added, ?The first step is to get a no-obligation offer for your home. This can be done by visiting our website or calling us during business hours. Once you have an offer, it is up to you to decide to accept it; once accepted, our team will move ahead with the sale.?
