

Collier Family Lawyers Cairns Moves Offices to 1 Pyne Street Cairns City

October 21, 2022

October 21, 2022 -
Collier Family Lawyers Cairns is announcing that they have moved locations. The company is moving from 132 Collins Ave to 1 Pyne St, Cairns City, for a more spacious and prime location with wider roads and ease of access, allowing local clients to find them more easily.

Collier Family Lawyers Cairns has moved its office to new premises on Pyne St, offering a more central location with a spacious and prime location. The Collier family law firm, which has been operating from the current premises at Suite 1/132 Collins Ave, Cairns City QLD 4870, is relocating to 3/1 Pyne St, Edge Hill QLD 4870. The new office sits right at the beginning of Pyne Street, a few shops away from the renowned NOA cafe. It's only one minute walk from the old office, making it easy for their current and new clients to find them.

"I am extremely excited to move my family law firm to the new premises in Edge Hill. As the family law sector continues to grow and we see more and more clients coming to us for advice, we felt the need to move to a more central location where our clients can easily find us," said Nardine

This decision to switch offices was made to provide more space for staff and clients' accommodation and better accessibility and visibility for their new clients. This move is also part of the family law firm's growth plans for 2022. The law firm was established by Nardine Collier, who has been helping families solve their legal issues for 26+ years.

Nardine has extensive knowledge of family law and has helped many local families find the right solutions for their legal disputes and lawsuits. Her law firm has been serving the greater Cairns area for several years and is now a reputable legal advisor that offers comprehensive services for all family matters. She has successfully resolved hundreds of cases, from child protection, custody, and adoption to divorce and fair property division.

The new office is spacious, with a bright room receiving ample natural light and more open waiting areas, ensuring clients are comfortable while waiting. The parking areas are also quite spacious, allowing clients more convenience when visiting their trusted family law firm.

This bigger and more accommodating new office will also allow Collier Family Lawyers Cairns to expand their team, leading to a better overall customer experience, which is the ultimate aim of the law firm.
