

Tens of Thousands of People are Liking Brazilian Singer Eduarda Xen

November 19, 2015

November 19, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

With much of the world living in either a virtual or literal war zone, many are finding the peaceful message of Eduarda Xen's "Turn the Page" video and single a welcome respite from the violence and a sane approach to life.

Shot in 2015 on the beautiful and tranquil hillsides of Malibu, CA, the landscape alone has a calming effect.

"Turn the Page" was co-written by Exuarda Xen (pronounced "zen") and award-winning songstress (and Malibu resident) Nitanee Paris , who also produced the video.

Says Paris, "Eduarda's passionate voice and beauty was perfect for what I envisioned for this song. If it brings even the slightest comfort and healing to this troubled world, we've done what we set out to do. Lord knows we need to make some changes."

The "Turn the Page" single and video have already garnered tens of thousands of Youtube views and Facebook "Likes." Many have come, says Eduarda's camp, from the very parts of the world in greatest turmoil - a sign perhaps that not everyone is filled with hatred against humanity.
