

Logan Conveyancer Celebrates New Conveyancing Website

October 24, 2022

October 24, 2022 -
QLD-based LEAD Conveyancing Logan is happy to announce that they have a newly improved and updated website. After several months of hard work, coordination and dedication, the team was able to redesign their website. For more information about LEAD Conveyancing Logan, you can visit their website at https://leadconveyancing.com.au/queensland/conveyancing-logan/.

As per the team, the goal of the website redesign is to ?create more valuable, user-friendly and responsive resources across all platforms and devices.? They want to make it easier for clients to navigate through the website. The convenience of learning and locating valuable information about the company and conveyancing for clients' particular reasons is what drives the creation of the new website.

Kristy Fletcher, one of LEAD Conveyancing Logan's lawyers, stated that the new website lessens the clients? enquiries about conveyancing in general. ?Since the inception of the new website, it is noticeable that most of my clients have fewer questions about their transactions compared back when it was not yet updated. It seems that the goal of the redesign is absolutely accomplished,? said Kristy.

LEAD Conveyancing Logan clients are joyful about the website?s new user interface. For some, its improvement signifies the growth of the company and their concern about their clients. In one of the reviews, Warren A. gave them a five-star rating and said, ?The genuine care about their clients is what sets them apart from other conveyancing companies. Thank you for helping me get my dream home! Thank you Kristy for being a patient and understanding lawyer! She knows conveyancing like it is the back of her hand. Apart from the amazing people from the company, they also have a top-notch website. Because of it, I feel like I can be a conveyancing lawyer too!?

Created with the user experience in mind, the new website has a Look Ahead Navigation that reduces the number of user clicks when navigating the site. Also, the Rapid Response Functionality allows the site to be compatible with all browsers and mobile devices. The sample request for quotes is now easily requested through the new cart functionality making the process faster and streamlined. ?You can now access the website anywhere without the hassle of waiting for a long minute to see what you need,? said LEAD Conveyancing Logan.

Another client, William R., also gave positive feedback about the new website and stated, ?The newly updated website helps a lot. I can now browse fast when using either my laptop or phone. This kind of site is great for business and sales opportunities. A company that redesigns its website is a company that constantly strives to improve the overall aspects of its business, from sites, products and services. Kudos to the team for doing their best on improving the website for us. I will surely go to LEAD again when the time that I?m going to buy my second home comes. Thank you for guiding me.?
