Bluffton, SC - To protect homes from damaging weather disturbances, Holliday Home Improvements now provides Hurricane Windows and Doors for its clientele in South Carolina.

The Bluffton-based company says hurricane windows and doors are designed to be safer and more resistant to intense weather. Instead of the standard materials, hurricane impact glass is made to resist very high wind speeds and shield against flying objects. With this, homeowners are protected inside their homes and from expensive repairs.

Another benefit of these hurricane impact-resistant windows and doors is their noise cancellation property, according to Holliday Home Improvements. Likewise, it acts as a solar defense. Hurricane-proof windows and doors block harmful UV rays, which ruin furniture and carpeting and cause skin damage too. While it blocks the harmful sun rays, hurricane-proof windows and doors are energy efficient. It keeps cool air in on warm days and warm air in on cool days.

Holliday Home Improvements also adds security and protection to the benefits of hurricane-proof windows and doors. The Home Improvement Professionals say since it is made of durable glass, hurricane-proof windows and doors offer increased security. As a bonus, installing these types of replacement windows and doors also brings more money. Those with hurricane-impact windows and homes usually get discounts from the insurance provider. Also, it increases home value.

As an industry leader, the local company provides professional installation of hurricane windows and doors in Bluffton, Beaufort, Hilton Head, Okatie, Ridgeland, and Hardeeville, SC.

?We use competitively priced materials that are the best in the market and will keep you in mind throughout your entire project. With exceptional craft and top-of-the-line customer service, we can complete your project on time and at a reasonable cost,? said a company representative.
