October 26, 2022 -
The law firm has dealt with some of the most complicated divorce and separation cases over the years, helping its clients get the best possible solutions

Divorce and separation are very personal matters, and one must speak with an experienced divorce & family lawyer who can offer strong representation and help them work through the issues. Alex Mandry Legal Group has a team of incredibly competent lawyers with a combined experience of 70+ years. They have the breadth and depth of expertise throughout the broad range of practice areas that come under divorce and separation. With years of knowledge and expertise in family law, they are offering consultation and legal services to the locals of the Sunshine Coast.

The company was established by Sandra Sinclair back in 2019 and has been working since then to help its clients win even some of the most complicated cases. They have been able to achieve this due to their ?client-first? philosophy leading, which the locals of Sunshine Coast highly regard. Sandra's area of practice involves family law, and she has also worked extensively in the domestic violence courts and in Child Safety matters. She's also a member of the Family Law Practitioners Association (QLD).

The group of lawyers Sandra has put together is extremely qualified and able to provide clients with the highest quality of services at an affordable price. The lawyers are all very experienced and skilled at helping clients understand their rights and what the best course of action should be with respect to their specific circumstances in case of divorce or separation.

The Alex Mandry Legal Group starts every case with a thorough 1-1 session to get a complete understanding of the client's situation. They offer a free 30-minute consultation with their family law specialist, where clients receive initial advice on their case, enabling them to decide their next step. Once a client puts their trust in Alex Mandry Legal Group, their team of the finest family lawyers in Sunshine Coast starts working on every possible angle of the case and the best course of action.

From child custody and support to debt management, spousal support, property, and distribution, etc., the team diligently works on every single aspect of the case to ensure the client gets the best outcome. Moreover, they educate and keep the clients in the loop to ensure every legal step taken is in the client's agreement and best interest.

"Grateful and impressed with Sandra & Eloise's knowledge and ability to handle a complicated and frustrating issue. Their support, patience, insights, and professionalism helped achieve a great outcome. I would highly recommend them." Said Kate Green (Family Lawyer Sunshine Coast)

Sandra and her team are very experienced, professional, well-mannered, and approachable. With an incredibly high success rate, they are the go-to family lawyers in the Sunshine Coast for all kinds of legal matters.
