October 26, 2022 -
QLD-based LEAD Conveyancing Gold Coast is glad to let the public know that their firm is undeniably booming, with over 10 positive Google reviews. Currently, the company has a total of 13 feedbacks with a high possibility of an increase in the next years of their business.

Most of the clients that gave feedback stated how happy they are that they choose the Gold Coast Conveyancer to help them sell or buy their properties, some even endorsing the firm to other conveyancer-seekers. ?LEAD Conveyancing might be a young company compared to many firms out there, but you can not deny that they do their jobs very well. By the way, some of their lawyers come from various conveyancing law firms before joining LEAD, some are even high-ranking members of those firms. There was a not-so-easy problem that I prefer not to tell here on selling my house weeks before settlement. I think it was my fault though. But Kristy dealt with it like it was some type of basic mathematics, a simple spelling bee. I was relieved when the agent texted me that the transaction had been settled knowing that someone fixed my mess. Thank you for your great work. Kristy! I also like to thank Nicholas Tsau as my paralegal. Would I recommend LEAD? Absolutely super yes! Their service and knowledge are worth your money, believe me. I would not be surprised if one day the company becomes a ubiquitous business that everyone can think of when planning on buying or selling a house,? said one of the delighted clients.

Kristy Fletcher, a Senior Lawyer at LEAD Conveyancing Gold Coast, is happy to know that the team?s hard work pays off. ?Right from the start, I am positive that we will have an excellent response from our clients. Why? That is because I see the more than 100 per cent efforts of my colleagues, from paralegals to lawyers. I think what matters most is the similar individual goal of each of us. We all want to help people. We do not do this job just to get money from their pockets. We truly care about their dreams. Most of our clients are first-home buyers. Knowing that they put all the money they have into the transaction is more than enough to ensure that they will get the dream home they want without any hassle. I would also like to thank Trinh, the founder of LEAD, for her encouraging words now and then. It sure helped us stay more motivated and determined to live up to the company?s main goal.?

This milestone signifies that the company is on the right track. The reviews are a reflection of their outstanding effort to serve their clients. It is proof that they memorise and study property laws every day for the purpose of helping people achieve their dreams.

Conveyancing is a legal process of buying, selling and transferring property in Australia. Hence, it is highly recommended that people who buy, sell or transfer a property hire a conveyancing lawyer to ensure that their transaction is legal. LEAD Conveyancing Gold Coast offers all those services for an affordable fixed price. You may try to estimate your potential transaction through their website as they offer free quotes to their clients.
