A Plus Quality, a business in Concord, ON, is celebrating that they have been in business for 20 years. From their humble beginnings in Toronto, they have been able to open a second office in Vaughan now as well. Over the past 20 years, they have been able to resolve a huge amount of furnace emergencies across the Greater Toronto Area and they look forward to continuing to do so for many more years to come.

A sales representative from A Plus Quality says: "Over the past 20 years, we have gone from strength to strength. The road has been rocky, as it has with any business, but thanks to our customers' loyalty and trust, and the dedication and professionalism of all our members of staff, we are now an established business. In fact, we are one of the most respected in the Greater Toronto Area. Here's to 20 more years!"

The business specializes in a number of services. This includes furnace repair and installation, boiler repair and replacement, air conditioner repair and installation, humidifiers and air cleaners, fireplace installation and repair, and commercial HVAC repair and installation. They are committed to offering a prompt and high quality service every time, regardless of who the customer is. Additionally, they can work to custom specifications as required.

When it comes to their furnace repair Richmond Hill customers have been particularly happy with the service they have received. "It was a Friday night and our furnace wasn't working," says Liam, "so I phoned A Plus Quality and Jack was out to our house within half an hour. He quickly diagnosed the problem and replaced it with one he had. Thanks Jack for your speedy resolution to our problem."

Because the business has two locations, they have the ability to address furnace and other problems across the Greater Toronto Area. In terms of furnace repair Woodbridge community members in particular have stated that A Plus Quality is their most trusted repair source and that they will not hesitate to use them again. The same is true for all the other areas that the company operates in.
