

Lucidx.co.uk Announces #1 Google Ranking for Term "Lead generation London"

November 23, 2015

November 23, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lucidx, a business in London, United Kingdom, offers new clients a free reputation management report that shows them what their current standing is. They then provide advice and information on how that could be improved. In order to show just how efficient they are, they applied their own advice and tactics to their own website. They are proud to announce that they have now received a Google page 1 ranking for the term 'lead generation London'.

"I believe in practicing what you preach and leading by example," says Deon Bryan from Lucidx. "No SEO or reputation management business can be taken seriously if they don't apply their own advice to themselves as well. We committed ourselves to a very popular keyword and were able to rank first within a matter of weeks. That really shows just how good we are."

As a lead generation company in London, Lucidx understands just how important it is for a company to have an excellent reputation. Without it, they simply cannot receive new traffic and leads to their website. Research has demonstrated that 78% of consumers' trust comes from peer recommendation, which shows just how important it is to not just be found online, but to be found in a positive light as well.

Lucidx wants to make it clear that by influencing an online reputation, the business gains control. "Those who increase their positive reputation place themselves miles ahead of their competition. We are there to help them achieve that, which is something we have achieved with many of our customers, but also for ourselves. Essentially, we have used ourselves as an example."

Since first launching, Lucidx has received an array of positive reviews for the work that they have done. As such, by increasing their clients' online reputation, they increase their own as well. "Deon and his team are extremely helpful and competent," says Chris Gibbons, business coach and executive speaker. "Within a few weeks I started getting enquiries that have led to some of my best clients. I continue to work with Deon because he continues to deliver results. I have recommended him to many clients. Brilliant."
