Jump For Fun is a bounce house and party rental company that has been serving Los Angeles County, Riverside County, Orange County, San Bernardino County, and surrounding areas for over 20 years. Readers in the aforementioned service area can find out more about Jump For Fun by heading over to its website at <https://www.jumpforfun.com/>.

Jump For Fun makes it easy to book rentals through its state-of-the-art online reservation system. When they arrive on the web app, customers are greeted with a calendar widget where they can select the day of the planned event to check for available products. Jump For Fun rents out its inflatables in 8-hour increments in 4 different time slots ? 10:30 AM to 6:30 PM, 11:00 AM to 7:00 PM, 12:00 PM to 8:00 PM, and 1:00 PM to 9:00 PM. Depending on availability, customers can select the time slot that works for them and proceed to the next step. Some days in the calendar widget may be grayed out due to unavailability, and the customer may need to call the company?s office directly to make reservations.

Upon selecting the date, customers can then choose from a host of rental categories including Sports N Fun, Jumpers, Long And Slim Combos With Pool, Large Combos Wet & Dry, Small Combos With Pool & Small Slides (for 10-year-olds and younger), Little Kids Playhouses, Gigantic Combos, Obstacle Courses, Interactives, Slides, Party Blowout, Furniture, Food & Drink, Large Combo With Medium Pool, Race Track (75 feet long), Xtra Large Combo, Mechanical Bull, and the New Sparkle Fabric Pink Magic Castle With Medium Pool.

The spokesperson for Jump For Fun talks about the variety of rentals on offer by saying, "As the most trusted home of inflatable entertainment rentals in Los Angeles, we take pride in our comprehensive inventory. Regardless of your kids' preferences of activity, theme, games, or sports, we have everything under the sun that you might need to make the party the most special occasion for your young one. We not only supply the star of the show – the inflatable where all the children at the party will spend hours enjoying themselves – but we also provide all the extra accessories such as party tents, chairs, couches, tables, and generators that you may need. Our food and drink machines serve everything from hot dogs to popcorn to snow cones and cotton candy. There is no party too off-beat, intense, or outlandish that Jump For Fun can't provide for. Visit our website to browse through everything we have in stock and start planning your dream event today."

Jump For Fun takes extra precautions to make sure that its rentals are safe for customers, especially since the 2020 pandemic hit. To live up to its promise of safety in uncertain times, its technicians follow detailed maintenance steps to keep all rental units clean and disinfected. The company also uses a hospital-grade cleaning solution that eliminates contamination risk.

Jump For Fun has received several 5-star reviews from clients who praise the responsive customer service, the plethora of rental options, and the affordable pricing. One recent customer review says, "We've been using Jump For Fun for two different block party events each year for the past few years. They have the best prices around. The guy who delivers and picks up is super nice and friendly and makes sure that everything is the way you want it."

Another customer notes the company's professionalism by saying, "I called many rental companies, and Jump For Fun was the only place that had the white bounce house I was looking for. Gibson was easy and pleasant to work with. The bouncer was delivered as promised an hour before the birthday and was picked up at the time they promised. Gibson was easy to get a hold of via text and phone for any changes to the reservation. Highly recommend this company."
