Catonsville, Maryland based Amazing Health Solutions has recently announced the availability of several new videos regarding health. The videos are now available on the company's official YouTube channel, and offer insights into a number of health issues.

Ronald Hoff, owner and CEO of Amazing Health Solutions, states, "We want our viewers to not just be entertained by our videos, but to learn from them as well."

The videos, which can be seen at <http://www.youtube.com/user/AmazingHealthChannel>, cover a number of general and specific health issues including weight loss, the risks of too much salt intake, and various other topics.

"We encourage anyone who is concerned about their health, or anyone who just wants to live a healthier lifestyle, to subscribe to our channel as we are going to be publishing more informative and helpful videos in the near future," states Ronald Hoff.

Hoff says that while the company does provide helpful information on their website, they felt that offering videos might be a better way to reach consumers, given today's technologically based world. He explains that the videos cover a wide range of topics, and offer helpful solutions and suggestions that consumers can heed in order to change their lifestyles and begin enjoying a healthier outcome.

The videos discuss health issues, such as the risks of eating too much salt, and offer solutions to consumers on ways to avoid these risks. With YouTube being one of the most popularly visited social media sites in the world today, Hoff says that the decision to begin a YouTube channel was an easy one.

"Some people just don't want to take the time to read articles, and the information that we provide is useful. We just wanted a means of reaching people, and one that they would take the time to actually pay attention to."

The YouTube channel currently has a number of videos, with more being planned by the company to be released in the very near future.

More about the company, including a complete list of the products and services that they offer, can be seen on their official website at <http://www.amazinghealthsolutions.com/>.
