LEAD Settlement Agents Perth Senior Lawyer Kristy Fletcher warned first home buyers that self-conveyancing is unhealthy and should not be done by anyone. "Although possible, doing conveyancing by themselves might be harmful to normal people as small mistakes can cause possible legal problems. It is cheaper to pay a conveyancer than a legal lawyer, and we assure a smooth transaction from start to finish for a reasonable and affordable cost. I can say to people who will buy property for the first time that prevention is better than cure. Our company is here to prevent any legal problems you might get into if you do conveyancing yourself."

Clients' feedback from the company's official website is a great way to know they can be trusted, as most reviews are positive. Some feedback commended the team for being responsive and transparent throughout the process. Some even mentioned that they were glad because the company ensured the transaction would be seamless.
