NYC uncontested divorce attorney Richard Shum (https://www.romanshum.com/manhattan-uncontested-divorce-lawyer/) releases a new article explaining the key issues surrounding an uncontested divorce with children. The lawyer mentions that litigating the dissolution of a marriage can be daunting and complex. It is important to have a skilled attorney when it comes to defending an individual?s rights in an uncontested divorce.

According to the NYC uncontested divorce attorney, ?Couples have the option to terminate their marriage amicably by opting to file for an uncontested divorce. In an uncontested divorce, the couple can come to a mutual agreement on key issues of their marriage without going to court. Issues such as child support, spousal support, division of property, and more can be settled by direct negotiation between the former couple and their attorneys.?

The lawyer mentions that a divorce can be complicated even if there are no children involved. However, the process can be even more complicated and emotional if there are children in the equation. A couple will have to address and resolve key issues such as child custody and child support.

Attorney Richard Shum adds that having a skilled lawyer can help parents formulate a parenting plan for their children. It is very important for parents to keep their children?s best interests in mind when deciding the custody of their children. Other issues that may arise in an uncontested divorce involving children include visitation rights and parent relocation.

In the article, the lawyer says, ?Divorce is never easy. A couple may be able to mutually agree on certain issues surrounding the divorce but it does not mean that tension is not present between the parties. A lot of the key issues surrounding a divorce need to be placed in a legally enforceable document. These issues include assets, child custody or visitation, and spousal support.?

Lastly, the divorce lawyer emphasizes that having an uncontested divorce lawyer can help the couple ensure they have all the legal support they need when it comes to determining the best child support order for their family. A skilled attorney can help the couple draft their agreements and make sure that the agreement is legally enforceable.
