November 14, 2022 -

LEAD Conveyancing Frankston, a VIC-based property conveyancing law firm that operates in the suburb and across Victoria, announced that they had undergone website enhancement. The company added newly-innovative features to make it more convenient for site visitors. For more information about LEAD Conveyancing Frankston, visit their official website.

The new website has a Look Ahead Navigation that lessens the number of clicks when browsing the website. The new feature made it easier for clients to know all the services offered by the company. Clients can decide if they want to get one of the company's services in just a few minutes. In addition, the new cart functionality made requesting a free sample quote a smooth online transaction. Clients can have a detailed breakdown of the costs of the service they want to get in just a matter of seconds.

Furthermore, another new feature is the Rapid Response Functionality that enables the site to be accessible using web browsers or mobile devices. This feature is the company's best online service, making its website universally accessible. There is no need to open a desktop or laptop to get into their website, and clients can view their site by pulling their mobile devices out of their pockets. All of the new features were designed to make the website more user-friendly than before, and its job is to generate more free quotes.

Trinh Thai, Legal Director and Founder of LEAD Conveyancing Frankston, stated that the newly-redesigned website dramatically reduces enquiries their customer service team gets. "This newly-improved website made our job easier, especially our customer service team. There is a noticeable decrease in general questions about conveyancing because of the spoonfed-inspired site. We just lay it all out there so that only a few clarifications will be asked of us once interested people give us a call. Companies can attract more clients if they have a user-friendly website that people can rely on at any time."

Conveyancing is a legal process in Australia of transferring real estate property ownership from one party to another. It is a procedure that involves property law, which makes it a task not for ordinary people. Any small mistake can have legal consequences if things go wrong during one of the parts of the process.

LEAD Conveyancing Frankston is a fully licensed conveyancing law firm that offers all kinds of conveyancing assistance for an affordable and reasonable price based on the cost of the transaction and their expertise. Their office is on the Ground floor, 435 Nepean Hwy, Frankston VIC 3199, Australia, less than three kilometres from Frankston Hospital. They are open to the public every Monday to Friday from 8:30 am to 5:30 pm.

The company offers services that include buyers' conveyancing, sellers' conveyancing, transfer conveyancing, contract drafting and contract review, all available for existing houses, units, apartments, off-the-plan properties and vacant land.
