Michigan criminal defense lawyer Paul J. Tafelski (https://www.michigandefenselaw.com/) releases a new article discussing how a criminal defense lawyer may be able to help someone. The lawyer mentions that it is never easy for someone when they are accused of a criminal charge because even just a criminal charge accusation can be life-changing.

?If you are convicted of a crime, you can face a broad range of penalties, from significant fines to years in prison. You can lose your career, and your freedom and your name and reputation can be tarnished for the rest of your life. When you are facing criminal charges, the quality of your defense is critical,? the Michigan criminal defense lawyer says.

The lawyer also adds that it is fortunate that being charged with a crime doesn?t necessarily mean being convicted. This is why it is important to seek the help of an experienced defense lawyer the moment someone is accused of a criminal charge.

Attorney Paul Tafelski says that a criminal defense lawyer may be able to help with different criminal charges like DUI, drug crimes, theft or burglary, assault, domestic violence, or even juvenile crime charges.

In the article, the criminal defense lawyer explains all the criminal charges that they may be able to help the client with. One of these is being charged with a drug crime. The lawyer mentions that being charged with a drug offense in Michigan can result in severe consequences and possible jail time.

Additionally, attorney Paul Tafelski also discusses how a criminal defense lawyer may be able to help with assault charges. According to the lawyer, ?Michigan takes violent crimes seriously, and prosecutors have a reputation for punishing defendants harshly. Conviction of a violent crime will not only result in serious consequences and potential years behind bars, but it will haunt you for the rest of your life.?

Lastly, the Michigan criminal defense lawyer emphasizes that if someone is being accused of a criminal charge, it is important that they seek the guidance of a skilled lawyer right away. Having an experienced defense attorney may be able to help them understand where they stand in the case at the moment and what their next steps should be.
