Seeing the love and gratitude from their clients for helping them achieve the best outcomes of their cases, the team at Alex Mandry Legal Group is super excited to keep offering the same top-notch legal services

For the past few months, Alex Mandry Family Lawyers Sunshine Coast has been working on implementing a strategy to increase its online presence. Since launching their website in 2015, they have grown their Google reviews to 19+ in a very short time. Thanks to their customer-centric working philosophy, Alex Mandry Legal Group has also started to receive excellent word of mouth, leading to a higher client count with time. Plus, this positive feedback motivates them to continue to deliver the best outcomes for their clients.

Alex Mandry Legal Group was founded by Sandra Sinclair back in 2015; who comes from a family law background and is a member of the Family Law Practitioners Association (QLD). She has also worked in the domestic courts and child safety matters extensively. From day one, Sandra and her team's service approach has been to offer a personalised experience to their clients involving 1-1 counselling where they learn about their issues and provide the most optimal legal advice.

This way, they are able to help clients better understand their legal options, assess their cases and prepare them for the next steps. With a team of lawyers, Alex Mandry Legal Group specialises in divorce, child support/child custody, property settlement, family mediation, child protection, spousal support, guardianship and more.

Alex Mandry Legal Group has built their reputation by delivering high-quality service at an affordable cost. The team's commitment is to deliver the best results in a cost-effective manner. They emphasise being empathetic towards their clients because they understand someone coming for legal advice is likely to be emotionally vulnerable.

Instead of taking advantage of their clients, the team guides them in the best way possible and works with them to figure out the solution that benefits them the most. This level of commitment, compassion and value are rare in any kind of service, making Alex Mandry Legal Group a go-to place for all Sunshine Coast locals. The raving reviews from their clients also reflect the value they get from the team.

"Sandra Sinclair and the ladies in the office have been an absolute dream to work with throughout my family law matter. Sandra was a calming and confident presence during very difficult court proceedings. I highly recommend their offices in Adelaide and Sunshine Coast for any legal assistance," said Lee Stones (Customer).

Another differentiating factor about Alex Mandry legal Group from other law firms is their free 30-minute consultation call. They give ample time to their potential clients to discuss their issues with them, get an idea of the service they receive from the team and then make a decision. In an era where lawyers charge hundreds by the hour, the Alex Mandry Legal Group offers free 30-minute consultations, which proves their commitment to helping their clients.
