

IMHO Reviews Envato Elements Black Friday And Cyber Monday 50% Off Discount

November 25, 2022

AVENTURA, FL - November 25, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

IMHO Reviews released a new article discussing upcoming Black Friday and Cyber Monday discounts on popular stock footage sites, audiobook services, online learning platforms, language learning apps, and more. Envato Elements was featured on this list as the company that is offering one of the best deals during this sale. From November 25 to November 29, 2022, an Envato Elements subscription will be available with a 50% discount.

Envato Elements is one of the leading stock footage sites that has more than 10 million digital assets in its library, including HD and 4K videos, motion graphics, video, graphics, and 3D templates, royalty-free music, sound effects, photos, fonts, WordPress themes and plugins, and more.

This year, Envato Elements has announced a 23% jump in subscribers and revealed that there are now over 500,000 active members on the platform. The service is popular among freelancers, content creators, and business owners, and can also claim high-profile customers like Walmart, Amazon, and Netflix.

"Envato Elements is an excellent service. It has one of the biggest libraries of digital assets among similar platforms and at the same time has the lowest prices. The quality of assets is very high and the variety is great. Overall, Envato Elements is a good choice for any content creator who is looking for an affordable and unlimited source of digital assets - a combo that is hard to come by. It is also the only stock footage platform I know of that offers a 7-day free trial," said the owner of IMHO Reviews, Vitaliy Lano.

Envato Elements is a subscription-based service that offers unlimited downloads for a monthly fee. The regular price of an Envato Elements membership is $33 per month and $198 per year if billed annually. However, during Black Friday and Cyber Monday sale, Envato Elements offers a 50% discount on all plans making the entire subscription available at half the cost of as little as $8.25 per month.

"Envato Elements offers a great deal this Black Friday and Cyber Monday. And what's even better, is that all of these prices are locked in meaning that if you decide to renew your annual subscription in a year, you won't have to pay a higher price. So if you have been thinking about purchasing an Envato Elements subscription, now it's the perfect time for that because there might not be a chance like that for a long time," explained Vitaliy.

According to the IMHO Reviews article, an Envato Elements subscription comes with a simple commercial license that allows unlimited downloads. Members can use assets in their personal and business projects but they have to re-license assets for each project. The subscription is for an individual and cannot be shared. The items cannot be used in on-demand services, re-sold, or re-distributed without adding value to them. Envato Elements has a future-proof licensing, which covers all the existing uses that were registered by a member while their subscription was active.
