Hilton Head Island, SC - Those who plan to spend their holiday on the beautiful island of Hilton Head will never run out of activities, according to 101 Things To Do Magazine.

The publication provides 101 Things To Do in Hilton Head as a guide. There are activities for all types of travelers. The free visitors' magazine said that despite the island's small size, it still offers a myriad of activities.

The magazine highlighted Hilton Head's 60 miles of bike paths in its latest feature. It also praised the island's beautiful sandy beaches set against a seascape perfect for beach activities such as water sports and picnics. With the influx of tourists in Hilton Head, developments started, including upscale neighborhoods, shopping areas, and dining establishments. Another thing tourists look forward to when visiting Hilton Head is its abundance of golf courses.

According to the 101 Things To Do Magazine, some fun thing to do in Hilton Head is its water activities. It includes visiting the Harbour Town Marina and participating in any sports activities. Tourists can choose from parasailing, paddleboarding, jet ski riding, a banana boat ride, kayaking, sailing, tubing, or water skiing.

The Best Visitors' Magazine likewise highlighted the ZipLine Hilton Head that lets guests fly through the air among massive live oaks and old pines. Guests can experience a bird's eye view of the ocean, nearby marshes, and idling boats. However, it is not for the faint-hearted since the guest will be dangling 75 feet up in the air.

Those who want to see dolphins, sharks feeding, turtles moving leisurely, and birds hidden in the mangroves can also experience it at Hilton Head. Island visitors can also visit nearby Daufuskie Island, located between Savannah, Georgia, and Hilton Head, SC. The island is a shopper's paradise, with excellent golf courses, art galleries, and restaurants.

Another thing not to be missed when in Hilton Head is a stroll at Folly Field Beach Park. The beach is ideal for families with small children because the ocean is relatively shallow and has a flat bottom.

The online and print publication also lists other activities and service providers in Hilton Head. To know more about these activities, interested parties may visit the 101 Things To Do Magazine website at https://101thingshiltonhead.com/. Additionally, anyone can request a copy of the magazine online.
