All of which can still be easily shipped in time for Christmas and New Year. Susan MacDowell, a representative of Cestari, says, ?We all know that there are stocking stuffers that are considered to be the norm and given out time and time again over the years. While that?s thoughtful and nice, wouldn?t it be nice for that special someone of yours to get something practical and a little different in their stocking for a change? So, try giving your friend, relative, or significant other a unique and practical stocking stuffer from us this Christmas season. You will see a big smile come to their face as they are presently surprised when they get something different in their stocking this year.?

MacDowell went on to describe some of the products that they offer which make excellent stocking stuffers. She first talked about the Cestari Recipe Holder Stand for Smartphones and Tablets. It was described as a stable, versatile, and ergonomically designed device. It will nicely hold a smartphone or tablet in a position where the recipe displayed on it can be easily read while preparing ingredients. Also mentioned by her was Cestari?s Massage Ball Hot Cold Roller Ball. A product that?s designed to quickly apply targeted cold pressure that has the potential to offer fast relief to sore muscles. It comes in a variety of colors. Other popular stocking stuffers that Cestari offers this holiday season include the Premium Garlic Peeler that?s made of sturdy, thick, odor-free silicone, and many different colored Liquid Chalk Markers that have a variety of uses in the kitchen and elsewhere around the home. According to the company spokesperson, all their unique and practical stocking stuffers are available on Amazon, and she feels that customers will also be pleasantly surprised by these items? fair prices.

Many of the above-mentioned stocking stuffers are highly rated by those that purchase them. The following are some sample stocking stuffers reviews. GSVicks review on the Cestari Recipe Holder Stand for Smartphones and Tablets states, ?Great stand for phone or tablet! While this phone stand is designed with the kitchen in mind, it?s much more versatile than that! Unlike other phone stands, this one accommodates phones and tablets with cases, including my big bulky iPad case. Since it?s made of plastic, it cleans up nicely and folds flat for storage in a kitchen gadget drawer. The rubber feet keep it from slipping. I?ve also found other uses for it! I have a small spiral notepad that contains my passwords, and this little gadget allows me to display it upright for quick access while I?m typing...great tool I?ll be using for years!? B. Allen proclaimed when writing about the Cestari Massage Hot & Cold Roller Ball, ?I love this product. It is a sturdy, simple design. As a Division I athlete in the past and as a strength coach presently, I feel that this product is something I could use on the daily basis. It freezes quickly and stays cold for a good amount of time. The design allows you to hold it without getting your hands cold. My favorite use for this is for massaging the arches of my feet. Removing the ball from the holder makes it super easy to roll out on. I will most definitely be sharing this idea with my fellow coaches and my clients!? More on the best stocking stuffers that Cestari offers can be seen on the company website or its Amazon.com listings.
