November 29, 2022 -
Hilton Head Island, SC - Insider publication 101 Things To Do Magazine recommends the best dinner cruise options in Hilton Head, South Carolina.

The magazine says anyone should try these Hilton Head Dinner Cruises on their next visit. First on the list is a Hilton Head Island Sunset Dinner Cruise. Guests can enjoy a delectable menu inspired by the Lowcountry cuisine and prepared fresh daily by award-winning chefs from Sea Pines Resort. There's also a wide selection of wine and champagne to complete the romantic dinner. While dining, guests will be treated to a mesmerizing view while traversing Intracoastal waterways.

Another cruise experience recommended by 101 Things To Do Magazine is a Dinner with the Dolphins by the Spirit of Harbour Town. This sought-after, early-bird dinner cruise departs during the day, allowing visitors to see the stunning landscape of the Lowcountry and the wild Atlantic bottlenose dolphins. While on a cruise, guests can also see some historic sites on Hilton Head and Daufuskie Island. To cap the tour, guests will have a lovely dinner onboard the luxury yacht.

The Spirit of Harbour Town likewise offers a fireworks-show dinner cruise, which is also highly recommended by the 101 Things To Do Magazine. Guests can enjoy dinner with a spectacular Shelter Cove Fireworks show in the background. It can be enjoyed while dining on the lower level of the climate-controlled cabin or the deck's upper level. Both choices will provide a view of the breathtaking panoramas of the Lowcountry.
