Breakfast is considered the most important meal of the day ? which makes brunch the second most important meal of the day. Visitors or locals looking for a trendy brunch restaurant in Madrid will find that Eatmytrip Brunch & Dinner is the place to go. The contemporary interior, surf vibes, and great music give an urban jungle feel. Eatmytrip is the perfect place for enjoying a meetup with friends over the best breakfast Madrid has to offer.

As a city not known for its early mornings, it shouldn't be a surprise that Madrid is home to some of the best brunches in the world. Combine that with the cities appetite for Christmas and it becomes the best place to find a festive brunch filled to the brim with festive vibes. Particularly on Christmas day, special festive brunches are being hosted across the city to ensure no one spends the day alone.

For those in the mood for a festive brunch, Eatmytrip Brunch & Dinner is the place to be. Among the perfectly plated dishes, customers will find truffled eggs benedict, avocado toast with cured salmon, a full English breakfast with Spanish chorizo, vegan brunch with Korean kimchi or an absolutely incredible pancake party topped with a dome of cotton candy. Freshly roasted specialty coffee beans, delicious homemade cakes, a spicy bloody Mary and bottomless mimosas add to an experience of a dream breakfast of the champions. Eatmytrip is easily one of the best places to eat breakfast or brunch in Madrid. The restaurant offers a vegan brunch, gluten free breakfast, typical breakfast, top coffee shop, cake shop and the bakery.

The restaurant's menu is inspired by worldwide cuisine. Asian, European and Middle Eastern influences can be seen through with dishes like Vietnamese pho sandwich, Malaysian laksa, truffled parmigiana, short rib kimchi bowl or spiced falafel bowl. Each item on the menu is lovingly created and garnished to perfection. The team at the restaurant reminds their customers to leave room for desserts like pistachio coulant because they'll definitely want to try one for each. A selection of natural wines and signature cocktails makes a perfect pairing to the dishes. Eatmytrip is a perfectly affordable restaurant, great for a family feast, a birthday celebration, a romantic dinner, or a dinner with foodie friends, and it joins the ranks of the well known and loved restaurants in Madrid.

Apart from being featured in many local blogs, the restaurant has also received the praise of its customers. Among one of the 1.2 thousand reviews on Google maps, Emmie L. rates the brunch at Eatmytrip Brunch & Dinner 5 Stars and states, "Absolutely incredible! The staff is amazing, and upon walking in they asked us if we wanted them to speak English (we're Americans). We asked them to speak Spanish so we could practice and appreciated the help and kindness. Great service, especially from our waiter (Mikaelo, unsure of spelling but he was awesome!), and the food was incredible. Taste, plating and quality were all wonderful! I would definitely come back. We came in on a Wednesday around 11am, and there weren't many people, no one rushed us and it was an overall amazing experience. Really good coffee options and a fun dining experience." From the quality of the food, service and overall ambiance, the restaurant is definitely a hit with patrons.
