Marla Zide, a partner at ZSTS, says, ?Call a Glen Burnie criminal defense lawyer with a proven track record. We have handled thousands of cases and now he can help defend you. We understand the high stakes associated with fighting criminal charges in Maryland. A conviction for a criminal act can lead to fines, incarceration, and lifelong damage to your reputation. Fortunately, you can secure professional help immediately from the ZSTS Law Group. Reach out to a criminal defense lawyer in Glen Burnie to discuss all aspects of your case.?

They can offer criminal defense for various kinds of charges, such as: assault; homicide; drug crimes; DUI; probation violations; theft; traffic citations; violent crimes; and weapons offenses. The assault and battery charge includes making a physical assault on another person, but which one is prosecuted may depend on whether the assault was just an attempt or was successful. There are two levels of assault charges in Maryland, which is the first degree, (a felony) and the second degree (a misdemeanor). While the laws governing assault are quite simple, the circumstances surrounding the alleged assault are usually very complex. The Maryland defense attorney from ZSTS will determine the specific defense that is needed to get the best outcome for the client.

They can also provide the services of a criminal defense lawyer for a DUI charge, which is a serious criminal offense that can damage the accused life and reputation. The defense will usually be based on the justification for the policy ordering the accused to stop, the probable cause for the arrest, and the results or lack thereof of the breathalyzer of blood test. The firm?s DUI attorneys have successfully completed the DWI

Detection and Standardized Field Sobriety Testing Student Course offered by the National Highway Traffic and Safety Administration (NHTSA) and International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) in September 2013. This means they are knowledgeable about the training and instructions given to police officers before they are allowed to do alcohol-related arrests.

They can also help with drug charges. Their drug crimes lawyer is knowledgeable and experienced on the different classes and rehab programs that can be taken rather than the accused spending time in jail or prison. Their criminal defense lawyers have more than a decade of legal experience with a broad range of felony and misdemeanor drug cases.

Meanwhile, aside from offering defense against serious criminal charges, they can also offer the services of a lawyer to contest traffic citations. They have noted that drivers often decide to represent themselves in court and this has led to some extremely unfavorable results. A lawyer can help the driver fight against any excessive penalty and keep points off from the driver?s record. The lawyer may frequently be helpful in having the charge and ticket removed.
