

Love Happy Family Lifestyles Announces Grand Opening

November 29, 2015

November 29, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Love Happy Family Lifestyles, a Hannibal, MO based company, has announced their grand opening. The company sells t-shirts, baby bibs, can wraps, and a number of other products.

Vernon Young, spokesperson for the company, states, "We are so pleased to finally announce our grand opening, and just in time for the holiday season."

The Happy Family store includes a number of items for Christmas including snowman and Santa Claus t-shirts and sweatshirts. Young says that all products sold by Love Happy Family Lifestyles are done so with family in mind.

"We have so many great items that will allow you to show the world how much you love your family. I mean, all of our products are unique and have something fun or whimsical about them, but ultimately they're all about family."

Along with shirts and bibs, the company also offers a selection of whimsical aprons which Young states are perfect for men and women alike. He says, "Really, if you need something unique for that person who has everything then we're sure to have just what you need." They also have can wraps with many whimsical sayings. Young states that all of their products have phrases that are dedicated to families both immediate and extended.

The company also sells whimsical pillows for aunts, parents, and other family members with sayings and cartoon images. Young states that they do not cater to just the traditional family, as they offer sayings for single mothers and fathers, and a host of other products.

Love Happy Family Lifestyles is a family owned business that strives to provide quality yet fun apparel and other items to consumers. Young says that their grand opening, just in time for Christmas shopping, hopes to have something for everyone.

A search feature is offered on the company's new website so that visitors can look up specific sayings or family members that they want featured on their apparel or products. Also available is a size guide to help consumers to choose the size that will best fit. More about the company, including an entire view of the selection of products that they are currently offering, can be seen on their official website.
