December 08, 2022 -
Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Savannah, a law firm based in Savannah, GA, is pleased to announce that they are offering the services of personal injury lawyers in Savannah and neighboring areas. Their lawyers will be examining each particular case at all angles, such as the cost of past and future medical treatments, the nature of the injuries suffered, and the effect the accident has on the injured victim?s life. By using the help of experts and their own experience, the personal injury lawyers will determine the appropriate value for their client?s claim and then initiate negotiations for settlement.

Tim Derrickson, a spokesperson for Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Savannah, says, ?An injury accident in Savannah can turn your world upside down. You may be left facing large out-of-pocket costs from extensive medical treatments following the accident. You will also receive calls from an insurance adjuster working on behalf of the at-fault party. The adjuster will make you a settlement offer which, according to them, will compensate you for your injuries. Many people make the mistake of quickly accepting the offer without first speaking to an experienced Savannah personal injury attorney in Georgia. It is important to remember that the insurance company is not on your side. The adjuster is hoping to settle your claims quickly and on their terms, thus saving the insurance company a lot of money. If you accept an early settlement, you may be undervaluing the claim.?

It is important to note that personal injury laws in Georgia enable an injured victim to pursue a claim in various kinds of circumstances. Each kind of claim is different and will need to be handled skillfully by an experienced personal injury lawyer. At Kenneth Nugent, their accident injury lawyers have more than 350 years of combined experience. These injuries could be due to motor vehicle accidents, bicycle accidents, slip and fall accidents, workplace accidents, defective products, medical malpractice, dog bites, nursing home abuse, construction accidents, and premises liability.

While no one ever expects to get involved in an accident and get injured, the reality is that accidents do happen every day. And many people suffer from injuries that change their lives forever, when they least expect it while they are doing their daily activities.

Tim Derrickson says, ?If you find yourself in this situation, you should not have to protect your own legal rights. It is important to remember that there is help available when you have been the innocent victim of negligence in our state. Our Savannah personal injury lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., understand the serious nature of a personal injury claim. We are here to protect you and help you obtain the compensation you deserve following an accident. Our team brings over 350 years of combined experience in all types of injury claims. Let us walk with you along your road to recovery. For a free consultation, give us a call.?

Founded in 1989, Kenneth S.
