Design One, a company offering High-Quality American-Made Colored Glassware, Charger Plates and China Sets in Winter Park, Florida, has launched a new website design. The website makes it easy for customers to find the exact item and style they are looking for. The new design highlights the company's extensive list of services.

The new website displays all the various services on the home page. If a customer is unsure of exactly which service they want, the home page makes it easy to explore the available options. When customers click on the links located on the home page, they are taken to the rent and shop pages which lists all the items for that service. Customers can then click on the simple, secure contact form to submit their information for a follow up call or email.

A spokesperson for the company, Felix A says, "We are extremely excited about the new website redesign. We are hoping the new look, will give our clients what they need with an easy to follow platform. We offer so many different types of products. Most of our potential clients, don't even know all the different customizations we offer.?"
