Okatie, SC - South Carolina residents no longer need to travel far to taste the most authentic Italian pasta, as Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant has that on its menu.

The Best Italian Pasta Restaurants in Bluffton, SC offers pasta lovers a long list of options. Diners can expect nothing but authentic Italian pasta since its owner, Chef Peppe Gialone, is from Italy. In addition to being the owner of the place, Chef Peppe is also the one in charge in the kitchen, with his family?s recipes on the restaurant's menu.

The Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant's pasta menu includes the classic Spaghetti Vongole, well-loved by many for its rich flavor. Their Spaghetti Vongole is made of Mediterranean littleneck clams sautéed with fresh garlic and cherry tomatoes in a delicious white wine sauce. Another pasta favorite on the Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant menu is their Rigatoni Sausage and Pepper. It's a classic Italian dish of sausage and peppers in marinara sauce over rigatoni pasta.

Their Rigatoni Ala Vodka, made of Italian pancetta and sweet onions sautéed in a creamy, pink vodka sauce, is another Nonna Rosa specialty. Meat lovers will also love their Parppadelle Bolognese, an original Italian recipe for meat lovers, a slow-cooked sauce over pappardelle pasta.

Those who don't eat meat also have a treat from Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant. They have Gnocchi Sorremntina, made of potato dumplings in a cherry tomato sauce with melted mozzarella. Cheese lovers would also love their Manicotti, a tube-shaped pasta filled with mozzarella and ricotta cheeses topped with fresh marinara sauce.

The Best Italian Restaurant in Bluffton, SC also serves the best-tasting and most appetizing main dishes. One of their Chef's specialties is Veal Saltimbocca, made of fresh veal loin pounded thin, sautéed in a white wine brown butter sauce, and topped with prosciutto, spinach, and mozzarella. They also serve delicious chicken dishes such as Pollo Fiorentina, sauteed chicken breast with spinach, and roasted red peppers in Nonna Rosa's famous red sauce.

Since no Italian meal is complete without wine, Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant also offers an extensive wine list. They have reds, whites, sparkling wines, dessert wines, and rosés from various regions of Italy, including Tuscany, Lombardy, Sicily, and Veneto. "There is a perfect wine to accompany every meal we provide," they say. To check out their full menu, customers may visit https://nonnarosabluffton.com.
