January 12, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Eatmytrip Brunch & Bakery, a popular restaurant in the Eixample area of Barcelona, Spain, is pleased to announce the opening of a second restaurant in the city. This comes after 5 years of tremendous success at the first location. Since the first restaurant opened, it has come to be considered a go-to eating spot in Barcelona where people line up to try delicious meals inspired by tastes from across the world. The newly opened sister restaurant, called Eatmytrip Brunch & Coffee, is in the quaint Gracia District of Barcelona. This unique spot in the city will now be even better to go to as there were no other places in the area where one could find specialty coffees with the wide range of tastes that the Eatmytrip restaurants offer. The owner of the new Eatmytrip location says, "When Eatmytrip Brunch & Bakery first opened in Barcelona, those involved were just hoping it would turn a profit and be a place where both locals and tourists could go to enjoy some unique food creations. They soon became overwhelmed and very grateful for the success that the first Barcelona restaurant experienced. It was that type of demand that inspired me to join with them to open a second Eatmytrip restaurant in the unique Gracia District of Barcelona." More information on this newly opened restaurant can be seen on Eatmytrip Brunch & Coffee's website at <https://eatmytrip.com/brunch-coffee-barcelona/>.

Eatmytrip Brunch & Coffee's owner went on to say that when someone goes to their newly opened restaurant's website, the first thing that will jump out at them is the photos that show some examples of the fares at the restaurant. They are photos that will make the viewer's mouth instantly water when they see the color and quality of the types of food that are pictured and how those menu selections are presented. The generous size of the portions should be noted too. Featured menu selections at Eatmytrip Brunch & Coffee will include such brunch offerings as Eggs Benedict, Salmon Cravings Bowls, Avolover Sandwich, and their popular Guacascramble. The newly opened restaurant will also feature Pancakes Choco Loco; a menu item from the other restaurant that is specifically mentioned in many reviews. The owner also pointed out that they will serve specialty coffees, lattes, and tea & herb infusions. Those alone will be worth the trip to their new Gracia District of Barcelona location even if a person is not hungry. Topping it all off is Eatmytrip Brunch & Coffee's wide variety of smoothies, juices, and natural soft drink creations that are nicely complemented by such desserts as vegan cookies, carrot cake, and several unique cheesecake choices.

Reviews show why the increasing popularity of dining at Eatmytrip Brunch & Dinner encouraged those involved to open a new location that serves similar fare. Viktoriq Mihailowa proclaimed, "One of the best places I've had brunch in. I highly recommend the pancakes choco loco and the specialty coffee. And if you don't want anything sweet the avocado toast was also really good. You must try the pink Barbie drink - it's very fresh and has a lot of flavors. The staff is friendly, nice, professional, and fast. The quality of the food is more than great, and the overall vibe of the cafe is so welcoming. It's pet and work-friendly too. If you like corgis, you will love the owner's dog, Coco. I really liked this place and definitely will come back again." Treasa Spragg stated, "Fabulous spot for delicious breakfast and brunch. The staff is multi-lingual and friendly, the coffee and food are fab, and it's dog-friendly! Highly recommend. Bright, cozy, and lots of different seating options including sitting outside." These glowing reviews of Eatmytrip Brunch & Dinner and many more like them can be viewed on the establishment's Google Maps Business Listing at <https://mgyb.co/s/bOEgC>. A listing where the original restaurant's overall rating is a very good 4.9 out of a possible 5 stars. Just like the first restaurant, it was also mentioned that the staff and employees at Eatmytrip Brunch & Coffee have gone to great lengths to create an atmosphere that is warm and welcoming, promotes relaxation, and where all are happily welcomed.
