Miami head-on collision accident lawyers at Charlip Law Group (https://charliplawgroup.com/miami-head-on-collision-accident-lawyer/) releases a new article on their website discussing the common causes of head-on collision accidents in Florida. The lawyer mentions that Florida is among the 5 states with the highest rates of car accident fatalities in 2020. Car accidents often cause major injuries, physical and mental trauma, and even death.

?A head-on collision, also referred to as a frontal collision, happens when two cars collide coming from opposite directions. Studies have shown that in a head-on collision, the force experienced by the drivers is equivalent to hitting a wall at the speed of the two cars combined,? the article from the Miami head-on collision accident lawyers says.

In regular circumstances, head-on crashes are easily avoidable. They usually occur in rural areas where roads are narrower. Often, head-on collisions involve an element of recklessness where a driver swerves between lanes in order to overtake another car without checking for incoming traffic.

On busy roads such as the ones in Miami, a head-on collision accident can be very dangerous to both pedestrians and drivers. Multi-vehicle accidents often happen when multiple drivers are taken off guard due to a sudden driver maneuver. A head-on collision can happen when a driver suddenly veers into opposing traffic, leaving other drivers little to no room to avoid the impending crash.

In the article, attorney Charlip adds, ?It is fairly easy to determine fault in a head-on collision as they often occur due to negligence. As they are caused by two vehicles from opposite directions colliding, one of them is assumed to be going the wrong way and is thus the liable party. The accident would not have happened if they were not going the wrong way.?

Lastly, the personal injury attorney emphasizes the importance of having a skilled lawyer when it comes to matters such as filing an injury claim after a car accident. An experienced personal injury lawyer may be able to help the victim receive the compensation they deserve.
