December 28, 2022 -
Hilton Head Island, South Carolina - Print and online magazine 101 Things To Do Magazine is proud to share its most recent list of kid-friendly Hilton Head activities available to guests. Hilton Head, SC, is considered among the best place for a family vacation, given the number of activities visitors can try.

Appreciating the island's beaches is among the Best Things To Do With Kids on Hilton Head. With its breathtaking sandy beaches bordered by the sea, visitors can relax, picnic, and do numerous beach activities. The island has 12 miles of beautiful beach. In addition, visitors can bring their kids on a lifeguarded beach, like Coligny, Islanders, or Folly Field Beaches.

Aside from beaches, 101 Things To Do Magazine also recommends exploring the island on a bike. The island has an extensive network of bike paths, making it a popular tourist attraction. There are also bike routes anywhere they look.

Another must-see attraction on the island is the Harbor Town Lighthouse. With its recognizable red and white striped lighthouse, it has become a favorite destination for families.

The Best Visitors Magazine also includes dolphin watching on its list of kid-friendly activities. Another excellent family activity on Hilton Head is going to Lawton Stables. The lovely horses at Lawton Stables are pretty calm, and the welcoming staff members are skilled at soothing anxious children.

The tourist magazine has a varied list organized by category, making it simple for anyone to find something interesting. There are listings for lodgings, real estate and timeshares, arts and music, restaurants and dinner cruises, fishing, games and arcades, and golf courses and tennis courts. In addition, they provide a database of historical tours and museums, medical services, nature tours, and commercial districts. Most activities are available any time of year, while others require advance planning.

"Our team of experts has curated a list of the best activities and attractions that will keep your family entertained all day long."

Hilton Head visitors can request a copy of the magazine online. They have to submit their contact info and mailing address through a form found on the 101 Things To Do website: https://101thingshiltonhead.com/.

In addition to Hilton Head and the neighboring areas, the visitor's guide magazine is available to the communities of California, Oregon, Hawaii, Arizona, and the Outer Banks of North Carolina.
