

Geelong Conveyancer Connects with Notable Online Review Site

December 29, 2022

December 29, 2022 -
LEAD Conveyancing Geelong, a fully licensed conveyancing law firm that operates in the suburb of Geelong in Melbourne and across Victoria, announced on Wednesday that they have recently signed up with Trustpilot, a well-known Denmark-based online customer review website. The website is the firm?s second partnership with an online review platform, preceded by Google My Business, shortly known as GMB, another popular review website. For more information about LEAD Conveyancing Geelong, visit their official website.

Trustpilot is one of the trusted and leading online customer review websites worldwide, and it receives almost a million reviews daily. A partnership with the company benefits any business as it can increase any company?s familiarity with the people in which they operate. It is typical for businesses to build partnerships with online review platforms in this age of social media.

Trinh Thai, the Legal Director and Solicitor of LEAD Conveyancing Geelong, stated that the act is to increase their popularity across different parts of Australia and gain people?s trust. ?As a constantly growing company, we want to operate in Geelong and other parts of Victoria. If possible, we would also like to inform the people that we have branches across Australia. We have been a licensed company in the industry for over half a decade. Our lawyers have a long track record and deliver excellent service quality. Not only that, our customer service is always top of the line; our customer service representatives respond fast to enquiries we receive on chats and emails. We want to inform people that we are one of the best conveyancing firms in the country.?

The conveyancing firm has garnered more than ten client reviews since its partnership with Trustpilot a few months ago. They are delighted to know that their former clients appreciate their hard work. For them, receiving favourable feedback motivates them to stay inspired at work. They always give their all in assisting clients, whether it is a buyer or a seller. Providing quality service is their way of thanking their clients for hiring them to do their conveyancing needs.

For interested people, the firm?s office is located at Suite 1, Level 1/27-31 Myers St, Geelong VIC 3220, Australia. They operate seven days a week from morning to evening. Their services are being offered for a fixed cost and can be availed for a low price. They have been in the conveyancing industry for more than five years and have handled almost all conveyancing transactions. They take pride in delivering quality and fast processes from the pre-signing contract to the settlement date.

LEAD Conveyancing Geelong is an established conveyancing law firm in the suburb that offers plenty of conveyancing services, such as buyers? conveyancing, sellers? conveyancing, transfer conveyancing, contract drafting and contract review. Their decision to sign up on Trustpilot is a big move to enable their brand to move forward.
