

Frankston Real Estate Lawyer Expresses Delight in Serving First Home Buyers

December 30, 2022

December 30, 2022 -
LEAD Conveyancing Frankston, a VIC-based licensed conveyancing law firm that has operated for more than five years, expressed on Thursday its desire to deliver its services to first-time home buyers in the suburb and across Victoria. The firm wanted to assist more first-home buyers because most clients in that category need to learn about property conveyancing in Australia. For more information about LEAD Conveyancing Frankston, visit their official website.

The well-established conveyancing company noticed the ever-increasing volume of their first-home buyers in the past couple of months. They also observed that first-home buyers came from different suburbs of Melbourne, not just in Frankston. The phenomenon is still new for the company as they have never experienced it in years in the conveyancing industry. Most of the company?s staff see the sudden change as a perfect opportunity to step out of their comfort zones.

To show that they genuinely want to help, they decided to offer a lower price for buyers if they fall under the first-home buyer criterion. The promo is available to all types of properties like existing houses, units of an apartment, off-land properties and vacant land. The criterion is simple: the buyer should have no record of property transactions from the past. As of this writing, the promo has no exact date on when it will end.

Licensed Conveyancing Solicitor Trinh Thai, Founder and Legal Director of LEAD Conveyancing Frankston, said that helping first-home buyers make them realise how important their job is in building a better nation. ?Using what we have learned through the years that we have spent in this industry to help young families get their dream home is one of the perks of our job, at least for me. Knowing that God is using us as a tool to enable those families to achieve one of their lifelong dreams is a thrill that is addicting, again, at least for me. Despite this is my perspective, I know that my colleagues love helping first-home buyers, too. It always feels good to help others, conveyancing matters or not.?

LEAD Conveyancing Frankston is a fully licensed conveyancing law firm specialising in the suburbs of Victoria, Australia. They offer conveyancing services for a fixed price, and most of their clients live in Melbourne, the state's capital. All of their legal assistance came from experienced and well-tested conveyancing solicitors with an extensive background in property conveyancing across states of Australia. They take pride in ensuring that the transaction will be smooth from the pre-signing contract stage to the settlement date.

For LEAD Conveyancing Frankston, it is always one of their missions to guide people who need to be advised regarding property conveyancing in Australia, especially in Victoria, as it has an above-average conveyancing complexity. As long as they know the solution for each matter of first-home buyers, they are willing to solve it for them.
