Panama City, FL - January 03, 2023 -
Dr. Tony Salamay taps into his decades-long expertise in functional neurology and clinical nutrition to help patients at Bay Clinic of Chiropractic, regarded by many as the best center for chiropractic care in Panama City, Florida.

The services offered at Bay Clinic of Chiropractic include Chiropractic Neurology, Clinical Nutrition, Functional Medicine, Sacro Occipital Technique, Chiropractic Kinesiology, Nutrition Response Testing, Spinal Decompression, Chiropractic Craniopathy, Visceral Manipulation, Full Spine Technique, Upper Cervical Technique, Thompson Technique, Applied Kinesiology, Activator Method, and other therapies. Dr. Salamay, along with the rest of the Panama City chiropractic clinic?s staff, uses a combination of the aforementioned modalities to restore the brain-body balance which they believe is at the core of most addressable conditions.

Dr. Salamay explains what makes the clinic stand out among other chiropractic providers by saying, ?A lot of inexperienced chiropractors use their domain knowledge to apply quick fixes. While you may leave their clinic happy, the core issue will remain and a few weeks later you will be back at square one, looking for a medical provider who you can trust to get to the heart of the issue. That is where my practice differs from my contemporaries. I believe in taking a long-term approach to help my patients. At Bay Clinic of Chiropractic, we focus on integrating aspects of Functional Neurology, Endocrinology, Immunology, and Energetic Medicine to understand the root cause of your distress. The solution, more often than not, is to restore the disrupted brain-body connection. The advance chiropractic care modalities we offer help you restore this connection and avoid life-long medications or complicated and expensive surgeries.?

I no longer suffer from fibromyalgia, Dr. Salamay has given me my life back. He has helped me tremendously with his type of adjustments and nutritional protocols ?nutrition response testing? that he uses as part of his functional medicine program. I had resigned myself to my condition because everyone I have been to, told me that there is no real solution. Dr. Salamay always gives you the necessary time without making you feel rushed. Awesome doctor. His office staff is amazing too. Highly recommend Dr. Salamay.?
