That's because of its track record of successfully litigating legal claims for those looking for a personal injury lawyer near me Orange. He also has established a solid reputation when it comes to representing those that have brought forth workers' compensation claims. Something that is not easy to do because of the often-grey areas that attorneys in workers' compensation cases like to exploit. Attorney Napolin wanted to discuss further the key aspects that surround these cases and why he often is able to successfully litigate so many workers' compensation claims for his clients.

Attorney Napolin first stated that workers in California are protected by the law in cases of workplace accident injuries because all businesses are required to carry an insurance plan to cover employees for work-related injuries or illnesses. In exchange for providing this type of compensation, businesses are protected from personal injury lawsuits brought forth by injured employees in most cases. There are also some guidelines as to how compensation must be distributed and in cases where this is not properly met, lawyers can appear in court on behalf of an injured client and present disputes to be heard by judges. He also was emphatic about people who have suffered a workplace injury reporting it right away because this triggers the duty of the employer of the injured worker to provide medical care while the company's insurance carrier decides to either deny or accept liability for an employee's injury. Claim filing is also best done when it's assisted with the help of an experienced California workers' compensation attorney. Some of the benefits that are mandated to be covered under workers' compensation laws include medical treatment, temporary disability benefits, permanent disability benefits, and in some cases with more permanent injuries job retraining vouchers. Attorney Napolin added that workers' compensation claims can arise from both trauma injuries such as slip or fall accidents or repetitive job activities that cause such ailments as carpal tunnel syndrome. He stated that he is always ready to discuss the legal options that someone who has been injured in the workplace has.

Those that have needed a good workers compensation lawyer Orange and hired Attorney Napolin often leave 5-star reviews that indicate they think that was a wise decision. Legal Force proclaimed, "Mr. Napolin is the most honest and straightforward attorney I have ever worked with. He gave me the best advice and if I ever need anything he was always available for me. That way you can have the same positive experiences with him as I have had! He has the best character and I 100% trust his judgment."

Attorney Napolin also talked about how slip and fall accidents don't only happen in the workplace. They can and do happen under a wide variety of circumstances and when someone is injured in this type of accident through no fault of their own, they have the right to bring forth a legal claim for compensation. Clients of this slip and fall attorney Orange also have been known to leave glowing reviews of this legal practice's personal injury representation. I had a previous accident where I waited years to receive a small sum, but that was not the case this time around. I am completely better and with things done expediently, I could not be more satisfied. I never want to be in circumstances to hire a personal injury lawyer again, but I can say I made the right decision by hiring Attorney Napolin. Keep up the good work!"
