Chicago, Illinois - January 12, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Chicago Website Design SEO Company (CWDSC) is drawing on its decades of digital marketing experience to help businesses in Printer's Row rise in local search rankings and get a leg up on their competition.

Printer's Row, as the name suggests, is called so because it was the hub of Chicago's printing and publishing businesses. Though today there are no more major printing businesses in the neighborhood, the area's dense urban atmosphere attracts a lot of young professionals and students who love spending time in the area's many bars, restaurants, coffee shops, and more. Niche.com rates the neighborhood at an overall A+. Nearly half of the locals have a Master's degree or higher and take home a median household income of over $100,000, over 50% higher than the national average. As a result, small business owners in the area are always trying to distinguish themselves from the pack and attract locals looking for enriching experiences.

CWDSC CEO Jack Lombardi talks about how it can help businesses in Printer's Row drive more traffic by saying, "When you sign up with us, you get a seasoned digital marketing team on your side that has seen it all and done it all.
