

SuperiorMaker Recommends Sam Smith Not to Use His Grammy's as Doorstops

November 28, 2015

November 28, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Sam Smith, the four time Grammy award winning singer has been quoted saying that he plans on using his Grammys as "doorstops". Although it has been two months since the awards at the time of his comments, he was still waiting on their actual arrival. The Grammys that are given at the awards ceremony are only props and the real ones are send to the winners at a later date.

When Sam was asked where he was going to put them, he said "I wanna think of somewhere funny?I wanna use them as, like, a doorstop?? as quoted on ABC News website.

This announcement not only added to Sam's "likeability" factor by keeping things humorous, but also sheds a little light on the fact that people do need and use doorstops.

SuperiorMaker, a top doorstop retailer on Amazon.com, was intrigued by this news and they intent to reach out to Sam Smith with their own door stops, so that he does not have to use his Grammys to secure his doors.

SuperiorMaker has two versions of doorstops available on Amazon. Their flagship doorstop is a package of 4 door stops that are a modern rubber wedge design that works on all surfaces, including carpet, hardwood and even concrete, resulting in no damages to the decor of the household.

The company has also recently released a new version of their door stops, with a package of 4 'big' door stops. These big door stops are extra-large and also a modern wedge design that work on all surfaces. The larger size works best with heavier doors.

A recent review by a satisfied customer, Jermaine Clarke, described the door stops in his 5-star review as being tremendous, 'This item was perfect for my heavy school door! One slide and done! It's so much better than my old wooden door stop.'

David Battagliese in his 5-star review said that the door stops are a great product, 'The doorstops are very good they're nice and sticky and really hold the heaviest doors in place I would recommend them work well.'

'We really hope that Sam does not use his Grammy's for door stops, especially if he has heavy doors. We would love for him to use SuperiorMakers door stops instead,' said Paul, a company representative.

SuperiorMaker's door stops are currently available for a discounted price on the shopping portal Amazon. Also for a limited time only, orders of the product will result in the shopper receiving two free homecare eBooks. SuperiorMaker's door stops are backed by a 100 percent money back guarantee.
