BALTIMORE, MD - January 24, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

McHenry Roofing of Baltimore, Maryland is a contractor that's business continues to grow in volume every year. Much of which is due to the company's experienced and talented roof repair crews and this contractor's emphasis on exceptional customer service at all times.

McHenry Roofing is also proud to be thought of as an affordable roofer in Baltimore MD. It believes in delivering its customers the highest quality roofing work for the money those customers spend on their roof repair projects. Something which the company owner, Joseph Conley, says does not always have to do with the bottom line numbers on a roof repair quote. Conley stated, "One thing that people must be careful of when they get a quote for a roof repair, is to make sure they are comparing apples with apples. For example, a roof repair estimate that is $500 less than a competitor's quote may not really be a bargain. That could be because the roofing work in the lower quote involves the use of substandard roofing materials, has no warranty or a very short warranty associated with it, and a thorough inspection might have not been done before the project which could result in additional costs on the final bill."

The company owner says he does not want people to take wrong what was just mentioned about comparing apples to apples in roofing quotes meaning their roofing work is priced higher than their competitors. Nothing could be further from the truth. Even with the extra details that are put in McHenry Roofing's repair quotes, they still consistently come in with lower quotes than their competitors. He went on to explain how they give their customers the most for the money they spend on roof repairs with them. It all starts with doing a thorough roof inspection. Many roof problems can be hidden by shingles and other roof coverings, so their techs must walk around every square foot of the roof's that they inspect. This helps keep roofing problems from being missed during an inspection that can add to the original estimate on the final bill.

McHenry Roofing's crews are also some of the best in its area and their crews know the importance of never cutting corners when doing roof repairs. Conley mentioned that their customers can also expect the best roofing products that are available to be used on any roofing project that the company agrees to do. This is also what allows them to back up their work with some of the best warranties that can be found among Baltimore County roofing contractors. He also is pleased to tell prospective customers and show them the proof that his locally owned and operated company is fully licensed and insured. All of the above-mentioned traits as to how they deliver the most work for the money their customers spend on roof repairs apply whether they are doing commercial or residential roofing work and whether they are working on sloped or flat roofs.

Customers that have had whole roof replacements, leak repairs, and other roof problems fixed by McHenry Roofing often leave very complimentary reviews of the company's services. Agnes Joseph stated, "We have hired McHenry Roofing for several different services. They have repaired a skylight, replaced our roof and gutters, and installed new vinyl siding. Beth and her team are friendly and personal. Our neighbors even noted how much curb appeal has been added to our home. I have recommended McHenry Roofing to both friends and family. Everyone has been pleased with their work." Wallace Nunez wrote, "A neighbor in Highlandtown recommended McHenry Roofing to me. I submitted my information online and received a call the next day. A roof inspection was conducted by Omar, who was very thorough and quickly found the leak in my roof. The McHenry Roofing staff was easy to work with and they were always prompted to respond to my questions and concerns. Five stars!"
