Brooklyn estate planning lawyer Yana Feldman of New York Legacy Lawyers by Yana Feldman and Associates PLLC announces the launch of their newly-improved website. The estate planning lawyer mentions that their website was updated to make it more friendly and easy to navigate for old and new clients alike. This move was also made to ensure that the website is accessible to everyone in the community.

?Your legacy is more than a list of assets. Your achievements for your family and your community can have a lasting benefit for future generations. With careful planning, you can ensure that your goals for the future are carried out during your lifetime and beyond,? the Brooklyn estate planning lawyer says on the website.

The new website allows users to easily access information regarding estate planning matters such as guardianships and wills. The website also provides easy access to information on probate litigation and elder law.

Visitors can find the list of practice areas for the lawyer at the top right-hand corner. The attorney has a wide range of practice areas. Aside from estate planning, attorney Feldman also handles probate, high-net-worth estate planning, Medicaid, and estate litigation.

In the website?s header, the visitor has access to other resources that they may need. These include blogs and other reading materials created by attorney Yana Feldman.

On the website, the lawyer mentions that ?Whatever your future plans may be, our team can create an individualized plan to help you get there. Together, we can ensure that your loved ones are well cared for at every stage of life and that everything you?ve worked so hard to build will be there for the next generation.?

Attorney Feldman?s new website focuses on providing more information about her practice areas and making information about them easily accessible to her visitors. If a visitor would like to schedule a consultation with an estate planning attorney, the website has a form that they can fill out.

Attorney Feldman encourages visitors to her website to contact her if they have questions or would like a consultation. Estate planning lawyer Yana Feldman and her legal team are skilled in helping families navigate the complexities involved with estate planning matters.
