Alexander D. Napolin says, ?Injuries happen. When they do, they cause financial harm in the form of medical bills and missed time from work. Injuries also result into general damages in the form of pain and suffering. When these types of hardships arise, injury victims turn to professional attorneys for help. Unfortunately, those who fall on hard times due to accident injury are not able to afford professional legal services out of pocket. However, the law allows for affordable legal services in the form of alternative contingency attorney fee arrangements. We offer true contingency fee billing arrangements and go a step further with our No Fee Promise.?

Meanwhile, Napolin?s law firm can also handle workers? compensation cases, especially those who have been hurt at work. It is important to determine whether or not hiring an attorney can help with one?s work injury in California. The law actually allows injured workers to represent themselves on their claim and in court and there are situations when it is not necessary to get the services of a lawyer. However, there are 12 ways that a California worker?s compensation lawyer may help injured workers recover more. Thus, when in need of a workers compensation lawyer near me Orange residents can rely on Napolin?s firm.

There are 12 ways that a workers compensation lawyer can help injured workers. These include: overturning a denied claim; turning a delayed claim into an accepted one; doctor selection within the the medical provider network; helping with getting secondary treating physicians; denied medical treatment on accepted claim; negotiating a better settlement for one?s case; affordability of hiring a workers compensation lawyer; cross examination of the qualified medical evaluator; getting outstanding medical bills paid; helping the injured worker understand their case; identifying other legal violations that may be present; and fighting to maximize all the benefits.

It is important to note that workers compensation provides a no-fault insurance coverage. This means that injured workers and their families will not be able to sue their company for neglect. An experienced workers compensation lawyer will be collaborating with the worker?s company and their insurance firm to provide the employee with the appropriate compensation benefits.
