Unlocking The Body Massage Therapy, a medical massage clinic in Puyallup, WA, is proud to announce that they have recently receive several five star reviews that are a testament to the quality of the massage in Puyallup that they provide. The medical massage they offer is results oriented as the treatment is intended to address the health issues that have been diagnosed and prescribed by a naturopath, chiropractor, or physician. The massage therapist will apply various modalities during the treatment and will focus on those parts of the body that are related to the prescription or diagnosis.

Unlocking The Body Massage Therapy has an overall rating of 4.7 out of 5 stars on Google after receiving almost 200 reviews. In one recent review, Valerie M. gave them five stars and said, ?Omg I'm a forever client there now! That should say everything.? In another five star review, Madison W. said, ?One of the best massages you can get for your money.? In another recent review, Dara F. also gave them a five star rating and said, ?Almost every massage therapist is amazing! Truly! Best place in Puyallup that I?ve been to.?

Jennifer Bull, owner of Unlocking The Body Massage Therapy, says, ?We still feel excited and proud whenever we receive highly positive reviews from clients, despite having received so many five star reviews.

We actually encourage our clients to provide us with feedback, whether is positive or negative. This is because it provides us with a way to gauge how we are actually doing in accomplishing our goal of providing excellent customer service. Rest assured that we will continue to strive to provide the best possible service to our clients.?

The medical massage therapy that they offer has various kinds of benefits. These include the: deactivation of myofascial trigger points, which are those parts with high neurological activity; reduction of pain and inflammation; release of tight and sore muscles that can cause ischemia; release of toxins like lactic acid created by muscle tissue during exercise; restoration of the strength and suppleness of the muscles; release of tension or muscles in spasm; provision of aid in digestion because massage enhances digestive motility; enhanced flexibility and range of motion; alleviation of stress and improvement of blood circulation; improvement of posture and coordination; prevention of future chronic pain conditions; and calming of the nervous system.

Aside from medical massage therapy, they can also provide breast-chest massage. This type of massage is often used for resolving a number of breast-related issues, such as: radiation or chemotherapy; gender affirmation; ?explant? surgery; breast-chest pain; elective surgeries; fibrosis; lymphadenectomy or lumpectomy; capsular contracture; lactation support; and gynecomastia surgery. They also offer the DeepFeet bar therapy method, which is also known as ashiatsu massage, where the massage therapist will provide smooth, broad, deep strokes with warm massage oil and appropriate draping. By using the wide surface of the foot and gravity, this method can accomplish much more than the usual massage using the hands.

Launched in 2008, Unlocking The Body Massage Therapy is a medical massage clinic in Puyallup, WA, specializes in insurance based massage therapy offered by private insurance companies like First Choice, Cigna, Regence, and many others. They also offer massage therapy for car accidents and work-related injuries.
