To exfoliate or not to exfoliate, the choice is yours with this double sided loofah back scrubber. I love having the option to scrub or just wash all in one handy back scrubber. With the exfoliating side you can get the job done well without the scratchiness some other loofahs have. Just want to have a good backwash, switch to the cloth side. The back scrubber is washable - just toss it into the washing machine to freshen it up. The shower poufs are on the small side but still very usable, having said that this set would still make a nice gift, said Que Barbara, a verified Amazon customer in her 5-star customer review.

SuperiorMaker's new loofah washcloth bath pack is currently available on Amazon for a discounted price. With each purchase backed by a 30 day no hassle 100 percent money back guarantee. Purchases also qualify the customer for two free homecare eBooks.
