Orange, California - February 09, 2023 -
Alexander Napolin is an experienced attorney with a long and successful track record of helping Californians who have been injured in vehicle accidents, especially those involving motorcycles. Readers searching online for ?Personal Injury Lawyer Near Me Orange? following a motorcycle mishap are urged to contact the Orange law office of Alexander Napolin for legal representation.

Vehicle accidents are responsible for an array of physical injuries including broken bones, lacerations, sprains and strains, internal bleeding, organ damage, concussions, whiplash injury, emotional distress, loss of consortium, pain and suffering, amputation, and more. The injuries can be potentially life-threatening if a motorcycle is involved due to the lack of protection, such as padding, afforded to the rider, the unstable nature of the vehicle which requires precision and balance, and reduced visibility to other drivers. In fact, motorcycle accidents have been proven to be five and a half times more deadly compared to other auto accidents. Nationally, they are responsible for 35 times more injuries in collisions than in car, truck, and van accidents.

Alexander Napolin talks about the recourse that injured motorcycle riders have by saying, ?Unfortunately, motorcycle riders have a reputation for driving rashly. Even if you follow the law to a T and respect other motorists on the road, insurance adjusters and the lawyers representing the party at fault will be quick to pin the blame on you. So, when it comes time to get rightfully compensated for the physical and mental trauma the accident caused, you may have a difficult road ahead of you. I recommend that you call an experienced personal injury attorney in Orange such as me. I will fight on your behalf to hold those responsible for the accident fully accountable. It is my job to ensure that you are not a victim and get the monetary help you need to recover from the accident. I have successfully helped thousands of clients get peace of mind and move on from a horrible experience. Call my law office in Orange County today and you will soon find out why I?m considered the best motorcycle and car accident lawyer Orange has to offer.?

When a client first approaches Alexander Napolin, there will be a preliminary consultation to understand the details of the case. Next, the Orange County personal injury attorney guides his clients toward a medical professional who can help them document all the injuries, even the internal ones that haven?t manifested yet and can create health problems for the victim in the future. A thorough examination is necessary to build a strong case and to maximize the claim against the party at fault. Since California is an at-fault state, Alexander Napolin will then use his years of experience in jurisprudence to clearly demonstrate the defendant?s liability for the accident. Finally, whether the case is settled out of court or goes to trial, he will negotiate and defend his client and get them compensated for past and future medical costs, lost wages, lost earning capacity, and emotional distress.
