

Wedding Photographer Now Available Throughout Southern California

November 30, 2015

November 30, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ryan Horban Photography, based in Temecula, CA, is happy to announce that they are now offering their wedding photography services across new areas throughout Southern California. With new this expansion in services brides and grooms can hire wedding photographer Ryan Horban for events across locations such as Palm Springs, Lake Arrowhead and San Diego. The photographer is now also available for international and out-of-state weddings. Requests are being accepted depending on availability and travel schedule. Please note that Horban only takes on a very limited number of weddings per year so in order to secure a date it is best that engaged couples contact the photographer as soon as possible.

"Telling a story through photographs has truly become a passion of mine, and doing so in a format that showcases authenticity, positive energy and genuine love is what drives me to be better every single day with my craft," says Ryan Horban himself. "I can only hope that, throughout my career, I have done justice to the love that I have been able to witness. After travelling to Chicago, Yosemite, San Francisco and so many other locations this past year while continuing to receive numerous requests for photography services in 2016, I have decided to expand my availability across Southern California and beyond. I plan on kicking ass, taking photos and sharing IPAs with brides and grooms ."

Ryan Horban prides himself on the personal touch he gives to each wedding. The Lake Arrowhead wedding photographer feels that it is a true honor to be part of someone's special day and therefore does everything in his power to do that justice. He often recalls his own wedding, which was done on a very small budget, but ended up being the most beautiful day of his life. He understands like no other that it is not about the money that is spent, but rather about the creation of memories and his goal is to make those memories eternal through the art of photography.

The work Ryan Horban has done has been highly appreciated by his many clients. "Ryan. Motha. Fing. Horban!," says past client Kristina from Temecula, California. "Beautiful unique photos? Check. Make you pee your pants? Check. He is that funny. Grab a beer or two with you? Check. Drive you and your wedding party home from your wedding because you are too drunk? Double check. This guy, who is now our friend, offers nothing short of genuine magic. I mean, just look at his photos! Ryan grabs the wedding day by the balls and knows what the hell he is doing. On your wedding day, you are so consumed with time, your venue, your vendors, omg is it fing raining?! type of situations and Ryan just shows up and gets right to work. Capturing moments you have no idea are going on. He basically is a Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon type of photographer... although, he doesn't bring his samurai sword with him and that's about all the disappointment to be had working with this warlock. Once I found him and we exchanged one email, I stopped looking. I KNEW he was the best fit and clearly I was right. "

Ryan Horban looks forward to capturing many more unique and wild wedding photos for couples throughout Southern California and internationally in 2016. Anyone looking at making their wedding day that little bit more awesome should reach out to the photographer and talk about their vision for their wedding day with him.

The entire wedding party loved him, too. What a guy
