February 06, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cincinnati, OH - Party Go Round & Event Rentals, a leading party rental company in Cincinnati, Ohio is proud to announce the addition of large interactive inflatables to their already extensive lineup of party rental equipment.

With the introduction of the Wrecking Ball, Bungee Run, and Joust, Party Go Round & Event Rentals is set to take the party scene in Cincinnati to the next level. These exciting new interactive inflatables are perfect for birthday parties, corporate events, festivals, and more. With the Wrecking Ball, participants can swing from a giant inflatable ball and try to knock each other off a platform. The Bungee Run offers a test of strength and endurance as participants run down an inflatable runway, attached to a bungee cord. The Joust is a classic game of skill and balance, as participants face off against each other on inflatable platforms and try to knock each other off.

?We are thrilled to bring these exciting new interactive inflatables to the Cincinnati area,? said Ian, CEO of Party Go Round & Event Rentals. ?Our customers have been asking for large interactive games and we are now able to provide them. We are confident that these new additions will take any event to the next level and provide endless hours of fun and entertainment.?

In addition to the new interactive inflatables, Party Go Round offers a wide range of party rental equipment, including bounce houses, water slides, DJ equipment, and photo booths. The company is dedicated to providing top-notch customer service and a wide selection of products to make any event unforgettable.
