Augusta, GA: In 1984, Wayne's Service All opened its doors intending to provide the best heating and cooling service to the community. Thirty-five years later, the company is still going strong and has become a fixture in many homes and businesses throughout central-eastern Georgia. In addition to its commitment to quality service, the company has become a trusted source for HVAC services, repairs, and installations.

The comfort of home or business has never been more important than it is now. And with the extreme summer heat and humidity in Georgia, a reliable and efficient HVAC system is a must. Wayne's Service All provides customers with peace of mind that their HVAC system is in good hands. With almost four decades of experience, the scope of the services they provide has grown.

Installation, repair, and maintenance of all types of HVAC systems are all part of the company's HVAC solutions. They offer both commercial and residential HVAC services, so no customer is left out in the heat or cold. Maintenance agreements are available to customers in which Wayne's Service All agrees to maintain and repair any HVAC system to prevent any future issues and ensure that the system is running at top efficiency.

Furthermore, Wayne's Service All offers water tank repair and replacement, as well as dry vent cleaning services. These services provide even more value to their customers. Having a company that can provide all of these services in one place makes Wayne's Service All a valuable resource of HVAC solutions for the Augusta community.

Being family-owned and operated, Wayne's Service All comes first in customer satisfaction. The company has built its reputation on providing quality workmanship and excellent customer service throughout all those years. Their technicians are all highly trained and certified so that they can provide the best possible service to every customer, every time.
