San Terra Properties Celebrates 15th Year as Premier San Diego Property Management Company

February 21, 2023

San Diego, California - February 21, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

San Terra Properties is celebrating 15 years of professional property management services in the San Diego real estate market.

Founded by Kim Klecan, an award-winning realtor in San Diego since 1992, and Tom Keliinoini, a former executive at QUALCOMM, San Terra Properties combines California real estate expertise with world-class customer care and attention to risk management. Unrivaled in today's ever-changing real estate investment market, property owners demand expert handling of the complex rules governing investment properties.

San Terra Properties offers a team of experienced professionals that deliver outstanding service coupled with adherence to the strictest of standards by the California Department of Real Estate, tax authorities, secure banking, reporting, and comprehensive maintenance services. San Terra Properties has earned an A-plus rating from the Better Business Bureau and are also members of the San Diego Association of Realtors, the California Association of Realtors, and the National Association of Realtors.

Our commitment to providing the best possible service for investment property management and real estate services is evident by our client satisfaction," says Realtor/Owner Kim Klecan. "We value the clients that have put their trust in San Terra Properties. We represent investment property owners that desire to build and maintain a reliable value for their significant investments. Most of our employees are tenants, so we rely on them to establish and maintain a solid line of communication that translates to an uninterrupted flow of income back to the property investor. Good tenants are not hard to find, but keeping a good tenant satisfied translates to a higher ROI."

San Terra Properties is a California Corporation, DRE license #01854049.
