Jeremy Maher of Phoenix Home Remodeling says, ?While they may not seem like the most important part of your home when you first think about it, the truth is that bathrooms are a vital part of our daily lives. They contribute to our health and hygiene, and they are the room we use to start and end the day. This means you can give yourself the spa-like relaxing environemnt with more functionality to improve your life. If you are interested in redoing an outdated bathroom, there is no one better to help you in Arizona than us.?

Phoenix Home Remodeling offers a comprehensive bathroom remodeling service for homeowners in Arizona who are seeking a high quality contractor. The company offers top-of-the-line remodeling services with the help of an expert team of certified bathroom remodelers who have years of experience in the industry. Maher says, ?Every homeowner has their own unique design goals and needs when it comes to their bathroom remodel. A one-size-fits-all approach does not work when it comes to remodels. This is why we offer custom solutions that are tailored to suit the needs of each of our clients.?

Phoenix Home Remodeling has a comprehensive online bathroom remodeling calculator on their website that helps homeowners get an idea of how much their ideal bathroom remodel will cost. Beyond that, they can also get a headstart on the process by having a phone consultation with the team of bathroom experts at Phoenix Home Remodeling (who will listen to the homeowners? goals and ideas and offer expert advice on how to bring their vision to life). During this consultation, the Phoenix Home Remodeling team will answer any and all questions a homeowner may have. Phoenix Home Remodeling uses a method they call ?Design-Build? which allows them to stand out from other general contractors. With the Design-Build model, homeowners will not have to dish out thousands of dollars more over the course of a project or have to settle for a substandard final result. After initial planning is done, Phoenix Home Remodeling will provide a full breakdown of the cost of the project and a full 3D rendering of all spaces so a homeowner can ensure everything is to their preference before they commit to the construction phase.

Phoenix Home Remodeling have earned glowing praise from their clients for their excellent work; the company boasts a perfect 5-Star rating online. Natalie Taylor writes in one review, ?Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful! From the first phone appointment to the last final walk through, Phoenix Home Remodeling was excellent, A+. From start to finish, the communication and execution were flawless. Their in-house designer captured exactly what I was looking for.
