February 21, 2023 -
Perth air conditioning contractor WestOz Trades is inviting homeowners and business owners to find out how its fully specialized, qualified, and insured services can help them beat the grueling Australian heat and save money on their energy bills.

WestOz Trades is a highly rated residential and commercial air conditioning, HVAC, and refrigeration services company that has been serving clients in Perth and surrounding neighborhoods since 2016. Bootstrapped by experienced aircon and refrigeration industry professional Louis Carter with a vision to change the way those services are offered in Western Australia, the company has garnered enormous goodwill from its clients all over the Perth metropolitan area.

The company offers a host of services including residential air conditioning, commercial air conditioning, property management, new and established home builds, air conditioning installation, air conditioning breakdowns, air conditioning servicing, and maintenance, split system air con hydro cleaning, and mold removal, preventative asset service and maintenance, air con balancing, air conditioner repair, and more.

Louis talks about why customers love WestOz Trades by saying, ?I built this business on the foundations of clear communication, honesty, and technical proficiency. Our superior workmanship wouldn?t have gotten the praise that it has received from our clients if it weren?t for our policy of always being truthful and upfront with them. When you call us, you get a high-performing team that is fully invested in addressing your problems with long-term solutions instead of short-term fixes. We use our unmatched technical knowledge, acquired through years of experience in the air conditioning industry, to resolve any challenge on time and within your budget. You will be hard-pressed to find another air con contractor in Western Australia who can match our work quality and customer service.?

WestOz Trades maintains a large portfolio of aircon units, refrigeration systems, and mechanical assets throughout Perth and specializes in preventative maintenance and breakdown works. It also offers home automation services to customers who want a smart home where the climate control system is fully connected and accessible via smart devices. For property managers in and around Perth, WestOz Trades offers service agreements that ensure all air con installations on their premises perform according to set guidelines, thus giving them one trustworthy and capable contractor on whom they can rely.

The work done by the air conditioning and refrigeration experts at WestOz Trades is backed up by a 5-year workmanship warranty. The team is especially adept at installing and replacing split systems, evaporative systems, and reverse cycle ducted systems for new homes as well as established properties. For clients who need a customized solution, WestOz Trades can design and implement systems that are tailored to each property?s needs. The company also has a large fleet of vehicles that enables it to serve its ever-increasing customer base promptly and reliably.

The company?s clients, some of whom have been with Louis since the company?s formation, have repeatedly praised the quality of its HVAC, refrigeration, and air conditioning repair services, friendly and responsive customer service, and affordable pricing. On its Google Business Profile, WestOz Trades has a near-perfect overall rating of 4.9 out of 5.0 from over 90 reviews.

One of the latest reviews on Google says, ?Friendly, competitive prices and easy to deal with. He has an understanding of property managers and our day-to-day roles which assists when liaising with Louis in regard to air con works.? Another reviewer writes, ?WestOz Trades Air Conditioning. You are great. Thank you for repairing our air conditioner at such short notice. We needed heating & now we are warm & cozy. We highly recommend WestOz Trades Air Conditioning & heating. All the best guys. Quick & efficient job!?
