

Insurance Navy Offering Liability Car Insurance in 10 States

February 15, 2023

Palos Hills, Illinois - February 15, 2023 -
Chicago - Illinois-based insurance agency Insurance Navy is now offering affordable and cheap car insurance services to a total of 10 states ? California, Texas, Indiana, Georgia, Nevada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and Wisconsin. These services include everything from full coverage with add-ons to just basic liability insurance as required by law.

?Within the last two years, we?ve gotten our insurance certification in seven more states and wasted no time in rolling out our services and new locations,? says Insurance Navy CEO Fadi Sneineh, ?Making general liability car insurance cheap and easily accessible has always been our priority as every driver has to carry it. A regular part of car ownership shouldn?t be expensive.?

Liability car insurance is sometimes just referred to as car insurance itself because every driver carries it at the very least. This is the auto coverage that covers any damage and injuries you cause to other drivers and their vehicles. Liability coverage also covers any continuing medical expenses and loss of income if the injured driver can?t work for a period of time. The property damage coverage portion of it also covers damage to nearby property, like streetlights, as a result of the accident.

Minimum coverage limits drivers are required to carry differ from state to state but are still never enough on their own to cover the total cost of damage and injuries. At the same time, every driver pays a different amount for car insurance. The state where they live is one of several factors that determine how much their insurance premiums will be.

Driving without liability car insurance anywhere can result in legal penalties, including fines and drivers license suspension. It can even make finding affordable car insurance difficult. Uninsured drivers are such a problem that uninsured motorist coverage exists solely to cover damage that they are unable to do in the event of an accident.

?In addition to offering general liability car insurance, we?re also pleased to offer our whole catalog of insurance products and services to every state we are now operating in. Every driver?s budget is prioritized with our personalized and competitive quoting process ?free of charge,? said Sneineh.
