

Long Island Bounce House Rentals Company Party Rentals R Us Launches New Items

February 17, 2023

RONKONKOMA, NY - February 17, 2023 -
Party Rentals R Us, the premier party rental company in Long Island, NY, is excited to announce its new inventory of bounce houses available for rent. These fun and entertaining inflatables are perfect for any outdoor event, including birthday parties, community events, and school functions, as well as indoor events held inside gymnasiums, auditoriums, or community centers. The company encouraged anyone seeking Long Island bounce house rentals to visit its official website to view available products and begin the reservation process online.

Party Rentals R Us offers a wide selection of bounce houses that can accommodate various ages and group sizes. From classic bounce houses to themed inflatables, the company has something to fit every party's theme and style. The bounce houses are made with high-quality materials and are supplied by the industry?s leading inflatable manufacturers, ensuring a safe and durable play area for children and adults.

"Our bounce houses are the perfect addition to any outdoor event," said Andre Martins, owner of Party

Rentals R Us. "Not only are they fun and entertaining, but they also provide a safe and secure play area for children. We take pride in offering high-quality bounce houses that parents, school administrators, business owners, and individuals can feel confident about renting."

Bounce houses are a great way to keep children engaged and occupied for hours at a party or event. They provide a safe and contained play area, keeping children away from potential hazards while providing endless hours of entertainment. Bounce houses are also an excellent way to encourage children to be physically active and involved in social activities.

"Many parents struggle to find ways to keep children entertained at a party or event," said Martins. "Bounce houses are a great solution because they provide a fun and safe space for children to play. They are also an excellent way to promote physical activity and friendly competition, which is essential for a child's development."

Party Rentals R Us offers various bounce house themes, including Disney princesses, superheroes, sports, and more. The company also offers combo bounce houses, which include additional features such as slides, obstacles, and basketball hoops, providing even more entertainment and opportunity for safe, monitored competition for children.

"Parents love our combo bounce houses because they provide even more entertainment for children," said Martins. "They are a great way to keep children engaged and entertained for hours. We have a variety of combo bounce houses to choose from, each with unique features and themes to fit any party's style."

In addition to bounce house rentals, Party Rentals R Us also offers other party rental items, such as tents, tables, chairs, concession machines, interactive games, photo booths, obstacle courses, water slides, dunk tanks, and other party essentials, providing everything needed for a successful event. The staff also offers delivery and setup services, ensuring a stress-free rental experience for party planners and hosts.

"We understand that planning a party or event can be stressful," said Martins. "That's why we offer delivery and setup services, taking the hassle out of party planning. We want our clients to feel confident that their event will be a success, and we are here to help with every step of the process."

Party Rentals R Us takes the safety of its clients seriously and ensures interested parties that all of its rentals are built with high-quality materials, including lead-free, fire-resistant vinyl, and are regularly inspected and sanitized. The company is fully licensed and insured, and regularly trains its team of party professionals on the latest safety protocols and procedures.

Party Rentals R Us is dedicated to providing high-quality rental items and exceptional customer service for all types of events, including birthday parties, slumber parties, family reunions, neighborhood block parties, gender reveal celebrations, holiday events, festivals, vendor fairs, community events, and school functions. With its new inventory of bounce houses and experienced team of professionals, Party Rentals R Us is the top choice for bounce house rentals in Long Island, New York.
